

A particle P of mass m is attached to one end of a light inextensible string of length a . The other end of the string is attached to a fixed point O on a smooth horizontal plane. The particle P moves in horizontal circles about O . The tension in the string is $4mg$.

Find, in terms of a and g , the time that P takes to make one complete revolution.

[2]